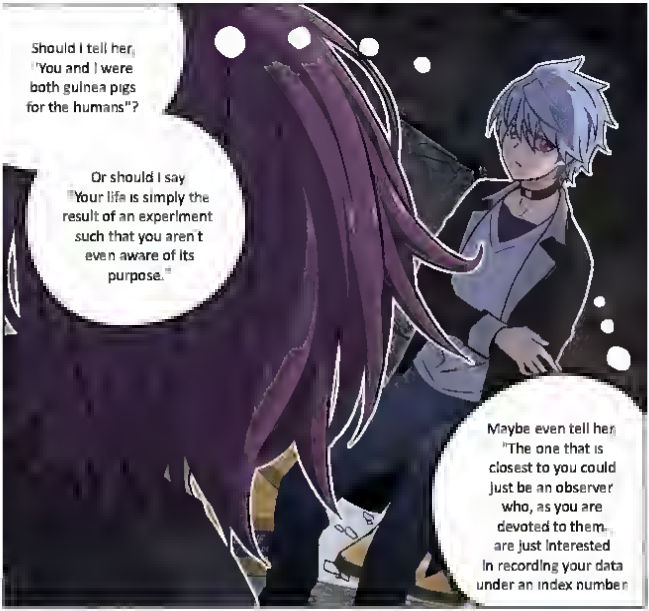
Huh...
Is there a link between the surprise attack and our arrival here?
There shouldn't be, since it doesn t make any sense. Not only that, there are other convicts here
The reason we were placed in "Qing LI" is because we were all death row

So from that... this probably also has nothing to do with what I've been waiting for,
Concerning my mother and Zuo Anqi

Why aren't you talking?
Trying to put together a story?
If I m to explain myself, I have to put things together clearly
Give me a break~
Girls are naturals at this stuff
Don t think you can fool me
What's your point in getting so close to us?
Putting it like that, what am I to say?



Should I tell her, "You and I were both guinea pigs for the humans"?
Or should I say "Your life is simply the result of an experiment such that you aren't even aware of its purpose."
Maybe even tell her, "The one that is closest to you could just be an observer who, as you are devoted to them, are just interested in recording your data under an index number."

I don't want to tell you these...
I just want to be in "Zuo Anqi's" presence

Sorry~
I can't tell you anything about myself, sigh~
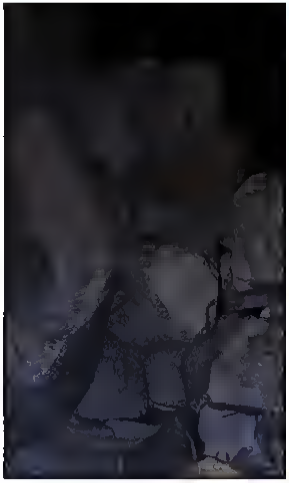
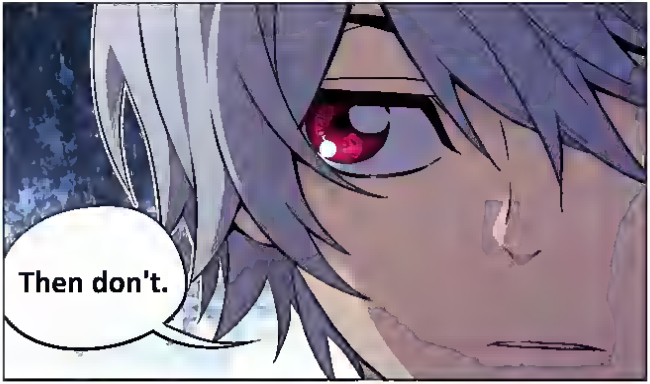
All I can do is ensure that you're safe.
I didn t kill the people at the insurance company
Besides, I also have no idea how that happened
Regarding Zhang Yifeng,
I didn't recognize her as a "companion" under exceptional circumstances. To me, her life was not a priority
Isn t that rather cold-blooded?
Then why didn't you think of a way to save her?
That s

I'm just like you.
I didn't save her only because I had no way to, and I didn t want to die with her
That's all it was...

Sorry.....
However...
Your way of thinking is still flawed.



ut.....
Mi Liu.....
If you're not going to tell me the truth then how am I supposed to believe you?



Then don't.

People by using 'friendship," establish what is called "confidence" in a cooperative relationship
And as friendship begins to crack under the pressure, then the one side can proceed to betray the other

I witnessed this and lost any sense of ethics
Thus I have no need for ethical logic or truth

Friends share emotions
Companions share goals
So, my dictionary has no place for "FRIENDS."
There are only "COMPANIONS" who share the same goals

That's just sophistry
Don t companions also have to trust one another?
But companions can have secrets.
I don t need you to trust me
As long as both of us have the goal of getting out of here, it'll do
Mi Liu——
What caused you to think so extremely?

On the surface, he speaks convincingly,
But actually, at the border, he's just,
Wall Building

Since we share a common goal,
I'll share this little thing with you~
